Friends Head to Heartland USA National Duals

By Derek Johnson
On April 13th, Drew Bretz and I left for Council Bluffs, Iowa to wrestle in the Heartland USA National Duals as part of the Kansas Elementary Dual Teams. In order to qualify for the Kansas team we wrestled in a qualifying tournament called Elementary State in Salina. The top six qualifiers at Elementary State made up the six teams Kansas took to the Heartland USA National Duals, which took place on the 14th and 15th of April. There, we wrestled against many different kids from many different states. My team, the Kansas Aces, wrestled teams from Pennsylvania, Minnesota, Idaho, Indiana, South Dakota, Texas, and Nebraska. I wrestled at 100 lbs and went 4-4 in dual matches. My team however did not do so well going 1-7 in duals and taking 4th in the silver bracket. One thing I thought that was going to be challenging about the experience was meeting new people. It turned out that meeting new people was actually my favorite part and I had a great time and met some really nice kids and coaches. I really liked it, it was a great experience and I can't wait for next year. I would like to thank my coaches for helping me prepare for this event and for the extra time they put in with Drew and I.

By Drew Bretz
The Heartland National Duals in Council Bluffs, Iowa were an amazing experience. On Thursday, all the wrestlers from Kansas that qualified for the duals met in Topeka and rode to Council Bluffs on a huge bus. I made lots of friends from all over the state on the bus ride to Iowa. When the team arrived in Iowa we weighed in at the arena, then went back to the hotel for supper and a team meeting. Friday and Saturday I wrestled a total of eight matches against kids from across the nation. It was lots of fun, I met a lot of new people, and got to see a lot of great wrestling. I hope to qualify again next year.

Read & Run Marathon Ends with Pie

By Rachel Farber

The 8th Annual Read and Run Marathon at the Hoxie Grade School began on February 3, 2017, with an assembly in the gym. Wednesday, April 19, 2017, the Marathon finished with all the students running their final mile at the track.

The students were challenged in this program to read 26 books and run 26 miles. Mayor Aumiller made a deal with Mrs. Frazey at the beginning of the program, stating that he would sign the proclamation to begin if he could throw a pie in Mrs. Frazey's face. She agreed that if the students completed all the requirements, he could do just that. After thanking everyone, once again, for the donations of Gatorade, water and bananas for part of the students' reward, Mrs. Frazey said she would get ready for the pie. As she was getting her hair net and goggles on, Mr. Howard was standing too close and a pie ended up in his face! Mrs. Frazey then pulled out a second pie and as she handed it to Mayor Aumiller, it ended up in his face! Finally, she pulled out the last pie for Mr. Aumiller to throw in her face! The students had a very good laugh over all of this.

Mrs. Frazey also told the crowd that this year's t-shirts were not purchased with grant monies, as they had in years past, but with Box Tops that had been brought to the school by the students.

The classes were then called out onto the track, one class at a time, to run their final mile. Afterward, they were rewarded with a Gatorade or water, and a banana. Then back to the school to finish the day.

It was a very fun and rewarding event!

SHERIDAN COUNTY EMS RECEIVES DANE G. HANSEN FOUNDATION GRANT

The Sheridan County EMS received a $22,000.00 grant from the Dane G. Hansen Foundation for an 800 MHz communications upgrade. The Dane G. Hansen Foundation grant was pooled together with a grant from CHS Foundation and additional county funds to enable us to purchase 800 MHz portable radios for Sheridan County EMS attendants. We wish to thank the Dane G. Hansen

Foundation for its continued dedication to investing in the communities of rural Kansas.

EMS personnel attended training on the new radios April 3, 2017. Training was conducted by Vance Scott, VLS Communications. Following training, the radios were immediately put into service. A one month trial period utilizing dual frequency radio communications was initiated to allow for identification of any procedural questions. Also present was Fire Chief Carder discussing interoperable communication between EMS and the fire department and lessons they have learned from use of the radios. Contributing information for coordination with dispatch and law enforcement communications was Sheriff Carver.

Several people have checked out the Louis L'Amour books at the Jennings City Library. The library also has a very small Classic Collection with several Pearl S Buck novels. Do you remember her stories about China? They opened many people's eyes to a different history and culture. Some did not know she had also written about Korea. Wonder if she had any idea of the direction they were heading. I guess we'll have to find out.

Stone Them - Part 2 By Micah Howery

Last week we discussed the changes the cross had on our relationships with other people. We should no longer condemn people for sin because the condemnation for their sin was placed on Jesus (1a 53:5). But there is another reason for changing our relationships with sinners.

As I mentioned briefly in the last article, I believe one main reason God commanded the stoning of so many forms of sin was to prevent the spread of that sin. In order to understand why, let me explain the situation in which we find the Israelites in the book of Exodus.

Abraham saw God. Isaac heard from God. Jacob wrestled with God. Joseph was given wisdom by God. But then, as far as we know, that was it. That period between Joseph and Moses was nearly 400 years.

There are many facts we modern readers often forget. First, the Israelites lived in Egypt for 400 years. This "God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob" had never claimed the whole nation as His own. That didn't happen until Sinai.

This God hadn't given any laws or decrees. They didn't know how to worship Him, even if they felt obligated to.

In other words, God had His work cut out for Himself. He planned to rewrite the religion, faith, moral code, legal code and social expectations of an entire nation that was, for all intents and purposes Egyptian.

So, what's a social planner to do? How do you change a culture in one or two generations? Complete control.

If God controlled their source of food, water, clothing, shelter, protection, success, government, rewards, punishment and all other aspects of their lives He could effectively change the way those people thought... if He isolated them from everyone else. (Note: He did all of these things in the wilderness for 40 years.)

What would happen if God left trouble-makers in the mix? What if He left idolaters, mediums, fornicators and haters in with the people who really did want to change? They would lead others astray! Because this process is so delicate, violators had to be removed to prevent a social breakdown.

What does this have to do with our relationship with sinners? First of all, Christianity isn't a nation. It isn't a culture. It isn't even, technically, a religion. Christianity is a family of people adopted into God's kingdom by grace through faith. We do need to be aware and wary of sin within the Church, but outside the church is God's affair. The Israelites didn't try to make Moabites follow the Law of Moses, and we shouldn't expect unbelievers to follow God's law. That means I don't need to condemn sinners. That's Jesus' job.

Secondly, God doesn't have to rely on the limited social structure to affect change anymore because He has put His Holy Spirit within each family member. Even as a pastor, it's not my duty to make my flock more like Jesus; that's Jesus' job. I'm here to help, but I'll let the Holy Spirit do the work. The same goes for those outside the Church. The Bible says that the Spirit draws people to the Father (Jn 6:44). I'll help but it's not my job to make sure other people are following God.

In the end there just isn't any excuse for condemning people. If you find yourself looking down on those who do things you disapprove of, remember this: we're no longer under the Old Covenant. Jesus said to love your enemies, your neighbor, and even harsh bosses and husbands. Jesus took away our right and responsibility to judge others. He also said the world would know that Jesus is the Son of God because of our love (Jn 17:23). Let's live that way.

Jokes & Quotes

An old legend about when the Lord created the world. He made men and all the animals to live forty years: the horse 40 years, the dog 40 years, and the monkey 40 years.

But the man was dissatisfied. He complained it was not enough time for the man to live.

So, the horse, dog, and monkey volunteered to each give man 10 years of their life.

So, that's the way it is; man lives his regular 40 years, the next ten he works like a horse, the next ten he leads a dog's life, and the last ten years he just monkey's around.

What's the hottest day of the week? Fry-day

A young fellow was walking through an unfamiliar part of town at night. Two muggers jumped out from the shadows and dragged him to the ground. The young guy put up quite fight, but eventually they overpowered him.

One mugger grabbed the man's wallet, looked inside, then through it down in disgust and said, "You put up all that fight for just a measly two bucks?"

The fellow answered, "Shucks, no, I was afraid you were gonna find the three hundred dollars I hide in my shoe."

A flea and a fly in a flue Were imprisoned, so what could they do?

Said the fly, "Let us flee." Said the flea, "Let us fly."

So they flew through the flaw in the flue.

The new minister looked at Jake and said, "I'm told you went to the ballgame instead of church this morning."

"That's a lie," snapped Jake "and, here's the string of fish to prove it."

In the Bible, the words "Fear not" can be found 365 times; once for every day of the year.

Economical Dishes

When preparing lamb or mutton pie the meat is a little scarce add a few peas to piece out, they add flavor as well as nourishment to the dish.

Tunny fish is a most delicious canned fish which tastes more like turkey or chicken than fish; this may be scalloped or made into a loaf. The following method for the preparation of the loaf is worth noting. Take a pound can of tunny fish, flake the fish fine; add the yolks of three eggs well beaten, a half cupful of bread crumbs, two teaspoonfuls of lemon juice, one tablespoonful of melted butter, salt, pepper and chopped parsley to taste. Fold in the well-beaten whites of three eggs and bake in a buttered dish for 40 minutes or steam for an hour. Serve with creamed peas and potato chips.

When distracted to know what to have for dessert, take a cupful of canned peaches, put them through a ricer, add a half cupful of sugar and the whites of two eggs, beat with a Dover beater until thick. Serve with a thin custard. Any fruit may be used if it is scraped or put through a sieve.

Tomatoes and Onions - Put canned tomatoes and stewed onions with bread crumbs and bacon fat for seasoning into a baking dish. Bake until thoroughly hot.

Madras Beef - Slice two small onions and one apple, chopped, and fry in hot butter; sprinkle a teaspoonful of curry powder, a teaspoonful of flour and the juice of half a lemon over the apple, then turn in several slices of cold roast beef with a cupful of gravy. Simmer 20 minutes, season and serve with cooked rice.

As soon as green apples are on the market this dish should be prepared for a winter relish.

Helpful Hints

When whipping cream in a bowl with a Dover egg beater put the beater handle through the bottom of a paper bag which has been slipped over the bowl to save the spattering of the cream.

When slicing tongue do not cut straight across the tongue; but diagonally; this makes better slices and there are no small dry tips left.

Mr. Smith has planted his lots to seed. He proposes to have some "garden sas."

A new-fangled, patent signal board has been put up at the depo. It's a daisy, and Ed feels as proud as a little boy with a red wagon.

Mr. and Mrs. Chandler, from down on the Hackberry, were guests at the Arlington Sunday. Mrs. C. goes to New York City the first of next week.

A. Beeson and Dr. N. F. Davis, from Burr Oak, Jewell county, this state, arrived here this week with a car load of goods. They are located on Middle Hackberry.

Mr. Mason has finished his blacksmith shop and commenced work. He will move into his new residence Monday. Mason is a man of good bearing, and we can heartily recommend him to all in need of smith work.

G. W. Vanmarter was down to Topeka as government witness before the revenue commission, this week. On his return he had a skirmish at Ellis. Think they're smart down there, but somehow always get left. Ask Van about it.

As we are ready to go to press we are told that the storm of last Wednesday night totally demolished the barn and greatly damaged the house belonging to and occupied by Peter A. Sweitzer, living four miles southeast of Oakley. His old Iowa neighbors living around here, who, by the way, say he is a deserving person, have gone out to-day to gather up and put together all that can be found. None of the household were injured.

Mr. E. Gudtner, father of Mrs. Sponsler, came in on No. 3, Wednesday, from Birchard, Nebr. Mr. Jon Gudtner arrived Thursday on No. 4. The two are brothers and had not seen each other for forty-two years until they accidentally met on our streets. They are now scanning the country o'er for locatins, and will settle as near neighbors. They had come here but to visit, but as luck has thus favored them, and as they are well pleased with the country, they will cast their lines among us; and will invest money of the south side. Peace be with them.

Bert Troutman sold his saddle to Phil Dunn, and will hereafter go it bareback.

Quite a number who came out last summer and located, and were held back by the severe winter, are coming out now only to find their claims under contest. We do not want to see any Rawlins county riots duplicated here, but the wrong man's claim may have been jumped.

Considerable talk is being indulged in regarding the establishment of a daily stage and mail line between here and Grainfield. It is certainly much needed as by this means we could get our eastern mail at least eight hours earlier than by the present method. We believe that by securing a post-office at some half-way point first, the route could be readily secured. Talk it up all along the line, and not only talk it, but work for it.

Eight Week Classes at FHSU

Flexibility and the opportunity of completing a course in a short amount of time are two of the main reasons students choose Fort Hays State University's Virtual College as the avenue to take to earn their master's degrees.

There are several benefits for utilizing FHSU's distance learning program to earn a degree, including the option of enrolling in eight-week courses.

Eight-week courses are gaining popularity at Fort Hays State and are available in a broad range of programs through the university's Department of Advanced Education Programs, which offer core courses across several programs.

Instead of enrolling in a traditional 16-week course in time for the fall and spring semester start dates, online students can now choose from several other dates to enroll in the same course that is completed in half the time.

Classes are set up through videoconferences where students anywhere can participate. Personal interaction is required through virtual communication with fellow classmates, which permits students to connect beyond a classroom and provides a dimension for authentic application and consideration at every grade level. The student is following a curriculum, but also exposed to leadership issues and concerns throughout the world providing for a wide range of classmates and many professions.

The ability to take a class eight weeks at a time, then have the option to take some time off -- for instance, during baseball season is especially attractive to many.

Other departments at FHSU are beginning to add eight-week courses to their online curriculum.

One of those is the Department of Applied Business Studies, which offers the shorter classes in tourism and hospitality management, one of the fastest growing career fields in the nation.

To learn more about the eight-week courses, and Fort Hays State's Advanced Education Programs in general, visit www.fhsu.edu/aep/academic-programs. The next session of eight-week classes begins June 5.

The Kansas Rural Center invites women farmers or want-to-be-farmers, women landowners, and women interested in sustainable farming, food production and local food initiatives to attend a Women in Farming Workshop on Saturday, May 6, 2017. Discussion with and questions from those in attendance are encouraged as part of the presentations.

On Friday evening, May 5, KRC will host a roundtable discussion and social hour for workshop attendees and local women from 7 to 9 p.m. in the Community Room of the Harvey County Courthouse at 800 N. Main Street in Newton. Informal comments by experienced women growers and community organizers will be followed by open discussion and questions and conversation. USDA Seeks Nominees for United Sorghum Checkoff Program Board

The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) is seeking nominations for sorghum producers to serve on the United Sorghum Checkoff Program board of directors. There are five producer member vacancies for the upcoming board. Kansas has one seat available, Texas has one and there are three at-large seats. Any sorghum producer within the U.S. who grows sorghum can be considered for nomination. All eligible producers are invited to submit nominations by May 30, 2017. Export Report

Export sales commitments were strong again this week with China purchasing 1.8 million bushels. This brings total commitments to 161 million bushels or 71.5 percent of the USDA target for the year. Deliveries were also very strong with China, Japan and Mexico taking delivery of 5.4 million bushels. Both commitments and deliveries are ahead of the 5-year average pace needed to meet the USDA target. Basis continued to be firm on the Mississippi River and the northern plains, but continued to lag in central terminal markets. Gulf Coast basis also remained strong, and there were reports of interest in the timing of harvest from buyers. This indicates the existence of export pull.

Crop Update

By April 16, twenty-one percent of this year's sorghum crop was planted, 5 percentage points ahead of last year and slightly ahead of the 5-year average. Planting remained largely limited to the Delta and the southern Great Plains. Planting was most active in Arkansas and Louisiana where progress advanced 24 and 20 percentage points, respectively, during the week.

KDA Seeks Participants for Beef Genetics Trade Mission to Argentina

The Kansas Department of Agriculture is seeking individuals to participate in an agricultural trade mission to Argentina. Tentatively, the mission will take place July 24-30, 2017. The goal of this mission is to provide an opportunity for Kansas purebred beef cattle producers and allied industry to develop relationships with livestock producers in Argentina to increase market opportunities for U.S. and Kansas beef genetics.

The primary activity during the mission will be to interact with breeders and promote the use of U.S. beef genetics while attending Exposición Rural (Palermo), the major Argentinian livestock show. Kansas ranchers and related agribusinesses specializing in export of Angus and Hereford genetics are invited to participate.

This trade mission is funded in part by the U.S. Livestock Genetics Export, Inc. Selected participants will be eligible for travel stipends for airfare depending upon number of applicants and fund availability. Farm Credit of Ness City Board Declares $2.2 Million Cash Patronage

The Board of Directors of Farm Credit of Ness City, FLCA, approved a resolution at its April meeting calling for $2,200,000 in cash patronage payments to be made to eligible stockholders this summer. This amount is a return of over 18.06% of the interest paid by eligible stockholders in 2016. The Association has also declared patronage at the April meeting of $290,731 in conjunction with other participant lenders on shared loans, bringing the total payout to over $2.49 million.

"We'll begin delivering the checks to eligible customers in July this year" said Association President, Kevin Swayne. "Our customers play a key role in the ongoing success of the Association and this cash payment reaffirms the Board's desire to reward our stockholders for their loyalty. Our strong capital position and earnings have made it possible to pay cash patronage for each of the last 18 years. Cash patronage payments substantially reduce our customers borrowing costs. After this payment, over $28.58 million in cash patronage will have been paid out since the inception of the program."

Farm Credit of Ness City, headquartered in Ness City, also has field lending offices in Dighton, Hoxie, Jetmore, Quinter, and Wakeeney. Farm Credit of Ness City serves agricultural producers and home owners in Kansas and elsewhere in the country with a loan portfolio of over $341 million at year-end 2016. Farm Credit of Ness City is one of the nation-wide affiliates of the Farm Credit System who have served the needs of farmers, ranchers, agribusiness, and rural residents since 1916.

The Board of Directors of Farm Credit of Ness City, FLCA, approved a resolution at its April meeting calling for $2,200,000 in cash patronage payments to be made to eligible stockholders this summer. This amount is a return of over 18.06% of the interest paid by eligible stockholders in 2016. The Association has also declared patronage at the April meeting of $290,731 in conjunction with other participant lenders on shared loans, bringing the total payout to over $2.49 million.

"We'll begin delivering the checks to eligible customers in July this year" said Association President, Kevin Swayne. "Our customers play a key role in the ongoing success of the Association and this cash payment reaffirms the Board's desire to reward our stockholders for their loyalty. Our strong capital position and earnings have made it possible to pay cash patronage for each of the last 18 years. Cash patronage payments substantially reduce our customers borrowing costs. After this payment, over $28.58 million in cash patronage will have been paid out since the inception of the program."

Farm Credit of Ness City, headquartered in Ness City, also has field lending offices in Dighton, Hoxie, Jetmore, Quinter, and Wakeeney. Farm Credit of Ness City serves agricultural producers and home owners in Kansas and elsewhere in the country with a loan portfolio of over $341 million at year-end 2016. Farm Credit of Ness City is one of the nation-wide affiliates of the Farm Credit System who have served the needs of farmers, ranchers, agribusiness, and rural residents since 1916.

Hoxie Soccer Kids Show Their Best Against Grainfield

By Jimmy Baldwin
Hoxie's second and third grade soccer team played a match against Grainfield Monday evening at the Hoxie soccer field. The final score was Grainfield 4 points and Hoxie 1.

The game was fast paced with the Hoxie team and its strong defense blocking more shots than Grainfield got into the net.

Hoxie Coach Megan Baalman said she was not disappointed in the loss as she was getting her team focused on basics and technique. Baalman stated she got her knowledge of soccer from playing for her high school in Providence, NC and she seeks to teach what she learned to her Hoxie team. "This game was about everybody trying their best," Baalman said.

When the game was over, Hoxie player Teagan Slaubaugh, like her coach, wasn't disappointed by the loss. "I was excited when I kicked the ball," Teagan said.

The Hoxie soccer kids will end their season with a soccer showdown against the parents Thursday, May 4, 5 p.m. at the Hoxie Soccer Field.

Billions of Birds!

Read the clues to fill in the puzzle about birds!

Hey, who's that? I'll watch him like a hawk...er...eagle.

Where did I leave my eggs? I can be a bit of a birdbrain.

Billions of birds live on our planet – in the forests, jungles, deserts, grasslands, near water and even in snowy areas. Millions of people like to watch or photograph birds simply because birds are so beautiful! It is fun to watch birds move and fly, and listen to how they communicate. Some people study birds' habits and life cycles. You can join in the fun and watch birds in your yard or at a park near you. Think about starting a notebook in which to draw, color and write what you learn about birds as you watch them!

My strong feet have only two toes, but I can run quickly – up to 45 miles per hour!

I just "eat up" fun facts.

Did you know that flamingos are born with gray feathers? Our pink color comes from eating algae and crustaceans (animals, like shrimp, whose bodies are protected by a hard shell). When the coloring from these foods goes through our livers, the extra coloring travels into our feathers and we look pink.

Fill in the birds' names in each fun fact by using the letters in the word FLAMINGO. Cross off each letter as you use it.

1. Birds are warm-blooded and have backbones. They are _____.

2. Flying birds have hollow _____ that make their bodies lighter, and powerful wings covered with feathers that help to lift them into the air. Only birds have feathers!

3. Most bird feet have four _____, three in front and one in back, to help them perch.

4. Ducks, geese and other water birds have _____ feet that help them swim.

5. Birds have _____, but no teeth. The shape of a bird's beak is suited to its diet.

6. Birds may eat fruit, seeds, _____, fish, flower nectar and, in some cases, meat.

7. Female birds lay eggs, sometimes on the ground, but mostly in _____ they build.

8. When their _____ hatch, many mother birds will chew food, then feed it to them.

9. Birds _____ with each other using chirps and tweets. Some birds, such as parrots, can mimic human speech.

10. Birds live almost _____: forests, deserts, jungles, grasslands and on mountains.

11. Birds may fly south before the _____ to warmer areas where it's easier to live.

12. Some birds, like eagles, live in pairs while others, like geese, stay together in a _____.

1. The fastest swimming bird is the gentoo pe _____ u _____ which can swim up to about 22 miles per hour.

2. The largest bird is the _____ str _____ ch. It cannot fly. It lays the biggest egg!

3. The smallest bird is the hu _____ b _____ rd. It has the fastest wingbeat of all birds, flapping its wings up to 50-60 times in one second.

4. The _____ l b _____ tr _____ ss has the largest wingspan of any flying bird, up to 11 feet.

5. A _____ p _____ e will steal shiny items and put them in its nest.

6. Vu _____ tures are sometimes called buzzards. They eat dead animals.

7. Burrowing _____ w _____ s in the Americas live underground in holes dug by prairie dogs. Unlike most owls, they are active during the day.

8. The peregrine _____ c _____ is one of the fastest flying birds, and may go as fast as 200 miles per hour in a dive.

9. Ch _____ cke _____ s are the most common birds in the world.

10. About ten million birds, like p _____ r _____ keets, are kept as pets in the U.S.
